

The Carbondale News, 6/29/83, p. 16

(photographs and stories all by SRP)

Fell students raise money selling candy bars

By S. ROBERT POWELL

Students at the Fell Elementary School, Simpson, recently completed a fundraising project which consisted of selling crispy milk chocolate and almond milk chocolate candy bars. Over 11,000 candy bars were purchased for the project.

Mrs. Karen Dragwa, the president of the Fell Elementary School PTA, has announced the names of the students who sold the most candy bars, as well as their prizes.

First prize was awarded to fifth grader Fred Colonna, 92½ Fallbrook Street, who sold 404 candy bars. As first prize winner, he was awarded a 10-speed Murray bicycle.

The second prize winner was second grader Len Dragwa, 25 Clark Avenue, who sold 150 candy bars, and was awarded a backgammon set, a badminton set and a junior clip board.

Third prize was awarded to fourth grader Paul Frishko, 14 Richmond Street, who sold 132 candy bars. As third prize winner, he was awarded a badminton set and a tote bag.

There were two fourth prize winners, Timothy Orue, a third grader, 124 Fulton Street, and Carl Venosh, fourth grade, 14 Froble Street, both of whom sold 120 candy bars. As a prize, Orue was awarded an AM solid state pocket radio. Venosh was awarded a Bobcat 8424 professional football.

The fifth prize winner was Darlene Daniels, fifth grade, 337 Jefferson Street, who sold 116 candy bars and was awarded a heart necklace and a butterfly necklace, as well as a bike lock.

WINNERS OF THE FELL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL CANDY BAR FUNDRAISING CONTEST. These are the students at the Fell Elementary School who sold 100 candy bars or more in a recent fundraising project at the school. They are, in the front row, left to right: Fred Colonna, Len Dragwa. Second row, same order: Timothy Orue, Paul Frishko and Carl Venosh. Not pictured is Darlene Daniels, fifth prize winner. (NEWS Photo)

FUN 'N' FITNESS WINNERS AT FELL ELEMENTARY SCHOOL. Dianna Gardjulis, Fun 'n' Fitness coordinator at the Fell Elementary School, has announced that the winner of the Post Cereals coupon-saving contest at the school was the first grade class of Mrs. Carol Stepien. The winning class collected 143 points and was treated to a pizza party. The party was donated to the school by Karen Dragwa, PTA president at the school, and her husband, Leonard Dragwa. Shown in this NEWS photograph are the members of the first grade class and their teacher, Mrs. Carol Stepien. They are, front row, left to right: Troy Smith, Sean Tierney, Chris DeFazio, Kim Tonkin, Jamie Gerchman, Loren Lepre, Stephanie Tonkin, Tommy Payne and Jeremy Woody. Second row, same order: Melissa Price, Holly Mroczka, Tanya Jones, Tracy Trusky, Debby Duffy, Joann Cleo, Mrs. Stepien, Michele Cerra, Philip Granville and Michael Bilko. Third row, same order: Jamie White, April Gill, Donna Hopkins, Lori Boguski, Patrick McDonough, Carrie Kovaleski, Kim McDonald and Alissa Auditori. Absent at the time this photograph was taken were: Robbie Woodbridge, Maura Zazzone, Kyla Barrett and Rodney Gravine.